JEFF COLBURN'S PHOTOGRAPHS ARE AT PITA JUNGLE

Jeff's Fine Art photographs of Arizona are on display at Pita Jungle, from January 3rd through February 29th. It's a feast for your eyes, and your taste buds.

"I love displaying my photographs," Jeff said. "It lets people see the amazing beauty and history of Arizona. My display shows a broad range of subjects, from mountains to old mining equipment as well as the various seasons that can be experienced in this wonderful state."

Pita Jungle is at 320 Regent St, Flagstaff, AZ 86001, (928) 774-0086, <http://www.pitajungle.com/locations/flagstaff>. It's open daily, from 10:30 am to 10:00 pm.

Jeff's photographs were also in November's issue of Shutterbug Magazine, where he was interviewed by Maria Piscopo on the subject of writing and selling ebooks for her Business Trends column.

Jeff has also just released his most recent ebook, "25 Places To Sell Your Photographs And Photography Skills." Designed for both amateurs and professionals, this ebook shows photographers how they can make money, even in these difficult economic times. More information about the ebook can be found at www.CreativeCauldron.com

Jeff is a 20-year resident of northern Arizona, and has been a photographer and writer for over 35 years. Jeff is available to answer any questions you may have about photography.
